Prez Sez...

Even when we aren't out bicycling, BIKES Club bf Snohomish County members can often be found out supporting two-wheeled travel.

It was BIKES Club members who helped organize the last Green Drinks (thanks Mike Dahlstrom & Clarence Elstad), a monthly happy hour for people who support environmental causes. About half the attendees were club members.

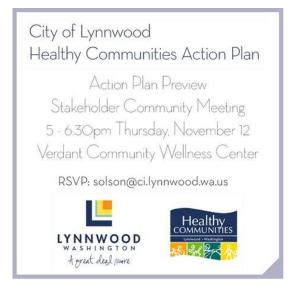

A few blocks down the road, other club members (Brent Hunter, Mike Snodgrass and Kristi Knodell) were wrenching away on kids bikes at Sharing Wheels. The community bike shop has a goal to fix 100 bikes for Christmas House, which serves thousands of low income families each December. Work parties continue every Wednesday night through November, 6-9 p.m. at 2531 Broadway, Everett (enter at back of building).

What other ways are BIKES Club members involved in our communities? VP Bill Weber is chairman of the city of Everett's Transportation Committee. Perhaps you have taken the time to research and comment on your city's road or bike plans (opportunities abound - see below). Or to complain - politely - about stoplights that don't trigger for bicycles, or bike lanes full of debris, or the need for bicycle racks at your local park.

We have plenty of rides on the November calendar, but if the weather doesn't inspire you to go outside, find another way to make bicycling and bicyclists visible in Snohomish County.

Thank you to these members who have renewed their membership or who have recently joined B.I.K.E.S.!

The BIKES Club Year-End Party and White Elephant Gift Exchange is Saturday, Dec. 5 in south Everett.

- Club provides main dish
- Potluck dinner and BYOB
- Rider Miles Awards

Gift Exchange*

What is a White Elephant Gift Exchange? It's a chance to re-gift that attractive doo-dad that Aunt Martha gave you but doesn't suit your taste. Or that unattractive, crazy game your kids didn't take when they moved out.

Sure, nice gifts sneak in, too, because "one person's meat is another person's poison." Plus it keeps 'em guessing.

Expect to see "ice nudes" ice cubes, bike parts and accessories, bike art, golf gear (we do have other interests), etc.

Wrap it up nicely, as we may play by some new rules this year.

Come join in the fun! This is a great way to celebrate the year we have had on our two-wheeled chariots!
